Call To Worship

One: In the midst of meaninglessness,
All: You call us to meaning, O God.
One: In the midst of divisiveness,
All: You call us to community through Christ.
One: Out of our brokenness,
All: You call us to wholeness and new life in the Spirit.
One: In praise and thanksgiving, let us worship God.

* Hymn of Praise Spirit, Spirit of Gentleness Glory to God #291
SPIRIT

* Call To Confession Suzanne Galle, liturgist

One: So often, in the midst of demanding schedules or ordinary routines, the joy of loving relationships or the pain of conflict and loneliness, we forget our opportunity to encounter a more lasting, comprehensive reality. Consumed by our own ideas, we close ourselves to the presence of a holy God, a divine being whose image shines in those who are open. Let us confess together that we might open ourselves to God's presence with us.

* Prayer of Confession Suzanne Galle, liturgist

Holy God, the way of the cross was a scandal 2,000 years ago, and it is no less a scandal today. The cross calls us to lives of humility in a world where pride, arrogance and self-promotion are seen as virtues. The cross proclaims peace in the midst of war, violence and abuse. It pleads for justice, assailing the disparities between rich and poor, sick and well, hungry and full, sheltered and homeless that we excuse as the status quo. The cross bleeds love and cries mercy, and it asks us to live with the same love and mercy of Christ. Enable us, Lord, by your power and grace, to give ourselves fully to what You ask of us. For the sake of Christ, we pray.

* Silent Prayers of Confession

* Pouring the Water

* Words of Forgiveness Suzanne Galle, liturgist

One: In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven. In our forgiveness, may we blossom fully with purpose and resolve, so that the world will know us by our love.

* Passing the Peace Suzanne Galle, liturgist

One: Knowing the grace and mercy of the Lord, we share it with one another.
The peace of Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

(Please greet one another and exchange signs of peace and reconciliation.)

* Hymn Glory Be to the Father GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen. Amen.

Prayer of Illumination Suzanne Galle, liturgist

Holy One, open our hearts and minds by the power of your Spirit, that, as the scriptures are read and your word proclaimed, we may hear with joy what you say to us today. Amen.

THE SERVANT SONG

Prayer of the People and the Lord's Prayer from the Maori Tradition

Eternal Spirit, Earth-maker, Pain bearer, Life-giver,
Source of all that is and that shall be,
Father and Mother of us all,
Loving God, in whom is heaven:
The hallowing of your name echo through the universe;
The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world;
Your heavenly will be done by all created beings;
Your commonwealth of peace and freedom
sustain our hope and come on earth.
With the bread we need for today, feed us.
In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us.
In times of temptation and test, strengthen us.
From trial too great to endure, spare us.
From the grip of all that is evil, free us.
For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen.

Children Sunday School

- Sunday School Classes for Children
  - Our November Theme is called Practice Joy - We usually think of joy as a feeling, a response to something we experience. We might feel joy when we witness a bright sunrise, laugh with a dear friend, or hold a sweet baby. But Scripture invites us to experience joy as more than a passive response. We are urged to practice joy as a faithful choice. The practice of joy is ancient, as witnessed by the Psalter, which urges joy's expression in countless circumstances. Joy does not depend on our present circumstances; rather, joy trusts in God's current presence and future promises fulfilled. Indeed, Jesus reminds us that faithfulness can be costly; yet even that does not preclude joy. We are able to come to the fullest expression of joy when we see joy that does not depend on our circumstances but that celebrates God's presence everywhere and always. This month we will explore four practices of joy, attested to in the Psalms and manifested throughout Scripture:

● See Joy in God's Creation
● Rejoice in God's Mercy
● Share Others' Joy
● Practice Joy in All Times

Adult and Youth Sunday School

- Paul Laird will offer a class, "The Christmas Story in Music" during Advent. It will be a consideration of the story as related in Matthew and Luke, but in chronological order skipping between the books as needed. We will also look at the musical selections (Christmas carols, oratorios, etc.) that depict the various scenes of the story. The class will meet in the Fireside Room at 9:15 am.
