Children Sunday School

- Sunday School Classes for Children
  - Our November Theme is called Practice Joy - We usually think of joy as a feeling, a response to something we experience. We might feel joy when we witness a bright sunrise, laugh with a dear friend, or hold a sweet baby. But Scripture invites us to experience joy as more than a passive response. We are urged to practice joy as a faithful choice. The practice of joy is ancient, as witnessed by the Psalter, which urges joy's expression in countless circumstances. Joy does not depend on our present circumstances; rather, joy trusts in God's current presence and future promises fulfilled. Indeed, Jesus reminds us that faithfulness can be costly; yet even that does not preclude joy. We are able to come to the fullest expression of joy when we see joy that does not depend on our circumstances but that celebrates God's presence everywhere and always. This month we will explore four practices of joy, attested to in the Psalms and manifested throughout Scripture:
    - See Joy in God's Creation
    - Rejoice in God's Mercy
    - Share Others' Joy
    - Practice Joy in All Times

Adult and Youth Sunday School

- Beginning November 15, Paul Laird will offer a class, "The Christmas Story in Music". It will be a consideration of the story as related in Matthew and Luke, but in chronological order skipping between the books as needed. We will also look at the musical selections (Christmas carols, oratorios, etc.) that depict the various scenes of the story. The class will meet in the Fireside Room through Advent.

Worship for October and November Every Gift Tells a Story

This past year has been one with wars in the international setting, battles in our political spheres, and people struggling to keep up with expenses. As we move into October and November our sermon series will be focused on ordinary people doing extraordinary things. There are many examples in Scripture and many examples in our church and community. This is our Stewardship Theme reminding all of us that we make a difference. When I get discouraged I look to two quotes that inspire me:

- "It is not your duty to finish the work, but neither are you at liberty to neglect it," from Rabbi Tarfon (Pirkei Avot 2:16)
- "I am only one, but still I am one. I cannot do everything, but still I can do something; and because I cannot do everything, I will not refuse to do something that I can do." Helen Keller

As we seek to acknowledge there are amazing things happening in a crazy world, we acknowledge God is working and engaged, and we offer ourselves trusting that with God we make a difference.

A postcard received in the church office – "Dear Congregationa and Staff, Thanks a million for being such kind and generous hosts for the 2026 general election. You always give us a kind welcome." Thanks again to everyone who shared left over candy for our voters and workers. It is good to be a positive part of the process.

In case you missed it – LETUS offered a presentation on "Plug-in Solar" for our homes. Charles Tuttle took of video of the presentation and you can view it on our YouTube channel here: https://youtu.be/Liw_meSdyjg Last Sunday, Pastor Helen provided an update on our solar panels and how they are working for us. Watch the newsletter for monthly reports on our usage and how we are affecting our environment in positive ways.

Deck the Halls! The first Sunday of Advent is November 29. After worship on that day we are planning to decorate the Sanctuary and Narthex for the holiday. If you can stay after worship and help members of the Worship Committee put up trees, greenery, bows, candles, and all the holiday décor, it will be most appreciated. It shouldn't take more than an hour or so if we have enough people to help.
On Monday, November 30th the Presbyterian Women will be decorating the trees in Fellowship Hall. All women of the church are welcome to join them for the decorating as well as a soup supper. The fun begins at 3:00 pm
